The church features high, pointed arches, ribbed vaulting, and tall, narrow stained-glass windows. Warm, yellow light from pendant lamps and the altar area illuminates the space. The altar is ornate with a large cross and religious figures.

SENIOR PASTOR'S MESSAGE

As we reflect on all that God in Christ through the Holy Spirit accomplished during the past year we continue to be humbled and grateful for all that God is able to do with human work and faithful witness. We celebrate new dimensions of spirituality reached in worship as well as in the lives of our individual members. We celebrate the new interest, new life, dramatically increased attendance and new growth birthed through our Bible Studies. We celebrate the 418 new souls that were added to the kingdom and the membership of St. James this year. We celebrate over $2,000,000 given in tithes and offerings. We celebrate the witness of so many of our members that tithing really works and that if one is faithful to the tithe God really does send the overflow. We celebrate the increased enrollment at St. James Preparatory School. We celebrate the expansion of the St. James Christian Learning Center. We celebrate additional medical services offered at the St. James Center for Family Life. We celebrate increased efficiency and effectiveness in the internal daily, business operations of our church. We celebrate growth in music and dance. We celebrate the increasing quality of care to the sick and those in sorrow. We celebrate growth in the youth church as well as other aspects of youth ministry. We celebrate the

After School Program, which provides quality homework assistance for young people when the school day is complete. We celebrate the continuing commitment of this church to the lost, the looked over and the left out. We celebrate the proposals that have been funded and the new support that has been attracted to this church's vision of ministry to the total person. However, like the Apostle Paul we realize that we have not yet reached our zenith in growth in grace, in prayer or in preaching, in praise or in power, in music or in ministry, in dance or in deliverance, in service or in salvation. We still have a long way to go to reach God's vision for us. Thus while we give thanks for past accomplishments, we also press on. We press on because there are still countless souls to be saved. We press on because there are still hungry mouths to be fed and unseen hurts to be healed. We press on because there are still minds old and young that need a quality, technologically adept faith based education. We press on because there are new places to reach in the Holy Spirit. We press on because there are greater victories to be achieved.

We are grateful to family, the staff, all of the members, other supporters of this ministry, and those who have called out our names to the Lord. Together, we press on as we continue to "Grow for God's Glory."

Rev. William D. Watley, Ph.D.

"Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus."

Philippians 3: 12-14, NRSV

EXECUTIVE MINISTER

"Growing for God's Glory through Education"

In our efforts to grow for God's glory in the year 2000, St. James worked diligently to provide opportunities for our congregation and community to hear the Word proclaimed and taught. Following the model of the early Church, we strove to lay a solid foundation of preaching and teaching for the salvation and maturation of God's people. To this end, the St. James Christian Learning Center (CLC) was created. The CLC is an innovative, adult learning institution housed in the state-of-the-art St. James Preparatory School building. The CLC offers classes and courses of study for those (both members and non-members) who wish to more effectively interpret and apply the Word, learn of our Christian heritage and its implication for Christian living and develop sound financial principles based on the tithe and faithful management of the remaining 90%. Students enrolled in classes also have the opportunity to build their personal libraries, as each class has required texts and readings. The CLC offers courses

Rev. Raquel St. Clair, Allen Cooper, Karl Smith
and Rev. James Deas

of study that lead to the following certificates: Christian Studies, Evangelist, Teacher, Christian Ministry, New Testament Greek and Biblical Hebrew. The CLC began with the Spring 2000 Session in February with 48 students. The CLC offered two classes: Intro. to Christian Theology: What Christians Believe and Intro. to Christian Money Management. The theology class studied the basic doctrines of our faith recognizing that the best way to identify a counterfeit is by knowing the real thing. The Money Management class examined topics such as tithing, goal setting, budgeting, debt reduction and wealth accumulation. The class ended with a trip to the New York Stock Exchange. The CLC looks forward to increasing the student body, course offerings and faculty and adding a Summer Session in the upcoming year. In addition to the CLC, we began assessing the needs and schedule of the congregation to hold Bible Study classes at the most optimum times.

In September, we kicked off our new Bible Study schedule and instructors offering the Women's, Men's, Youth and Pastor's Bible Study weekly. Parents who participate in the Pastor's Bible Study have the convenience of sending their children to the Youth Bible Study that is taught simultaneously. Women's Bible Study precedes the Pastor's Bible Study and the Men's Bible Study remains on Saturday. Attendance to the Bible Studies has more than doubled, averaging over 250 people in one of our Bible Studies each week. Not only do the Bible Studies provide an opportunity for growth of the general membership, they also provide training for members of our pulpit staff and those with teaching ministries. We thank God for the preaching and the teaching ministries of His Church.

"The beginning of wisdom is this:
Get wisdom, and whatever else
you get, get insight."

"Love is patient; love is kind. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends."

1 Corinthians 13:4, 7-8

Pastoral Care in the African American tradition is done with the greatest amount of love and concern particularly regarding issues that strongly effect and affect our community. Issues such as health, socio-economics, family structure and dynamics, spiritual values and morals, domestic violence, stereotypes, sexuality, issues of gender, self-esteem and more are prayerfully addressed. Our objective is to uplift and encourage the congregation to move beyond their circumstances by embracing and receiving God's helping hand.

- Sick and Shut-in Visitation and communing reached 80-90 members monthly in hospitals, private residences, nursing homes and other hospice facilities. Assisting Rev. Rushdan is Rev. Thomasena Woodward, Rev. Mary Ellen Lake, Bro. Garvey Ince, Bro. Robert Kent, Sis. Andrea Walker, Grace Thomas, Darrell Pope and Jean Graham.
- The Reach Out and Touch Ministry uses technology as a means of staying in touch with the membership. Prayers, scriptures and words of encouragement are transmitted electronically to each member of the church. This ministry is monitored by Rev. Jean Bonds.

- HIV/AIDS Ministry led by Gloria Burton had a successful year in 2000, which included hosting The Balm in Gilead HIV/AIDS Awareness Conference and the Annual Teens Awareness Conference.
- Prison Ministry members regularly conduct bible study to youths in the Essex County Youth Detention Center and annually host the Angel Tree Christmas Party for the children and families of prison inmates. Daphne Gaters is the Lay Leader of this ministry.
- The Single Parent Ministry continues to foster and promote a sense of wellness and being to single parent families through insightful bible study and open floor discussions on titling, dating, divorce, anger, time management, child rearing, and other relevant topics. Rev. Rushdan is the facilitator.

Other Ministries and duties under the umbrella of Pastoral Care include The Greeters Ministry directed by Jean Graham, the Nurses Unit (currently under the direction of Rev. Rushdan and Rev. Ellen Warren) and the Grief and Bereavement Ministry led by Rev. Rushdan. The coordination of funerals and baptisms are pastoral care responsibilities.

SOCIAL SERVICES CORPORATION...

Growing for God's Glory in the 21st Century

St. James Social Services, the umbrella organization for the social outreach programs of St. James A.M. E. Church found the year 2000 to be one of tremendous growth and major accomplishments, which included a 50 percent increase in grants and donations. With the overall objective of supporting the family unit, St. James Social Services stands on its reputation of being a leading social service agency in the city of Newark and throughout the state of New Jersey.

St. James Social Outreach Programs, housed in the historic Blake House mansion under the direction of John W. Butler and staffed by dedicated volunteers, operate Monday through Friday, Sunday and on the third Saturday of each month. The congregation supports these programs, as do strong partnerships with the Community FoodBank of New Jersey, IDT and Jersey Cares.

In the year 2000 more than 24 tons of food, which equates to 63,029 meals were distributed to 51,207 women, men and children. Through the clothing distribution, several thousand items which included 600 winter coats were provided to more than 3400 people. During the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays, 1750 people received food baskets and 1500 toys were distributed to children. The holiday distribution is coordinated by the St. James Women's Missionary Society through the referral services 975 people were referred to shelters or other social service agencies and 379 people with substance abuse problems to the Center for Family Life.

The St. James Intergenerational After School Program provides a safe, nurturing learning environment for children ages 5 - 14 years of age during the after school hours. With educational excellence and cultural awareness being its focus, an average of 40 - 45 children participated in the program. A new eighteen terminal computer laboratory brings added value to the program.

St. James Safe Haven Summer Camp under the directorship of Rev. Deborah Richardson, has a goal of providing a safe, fun filled, educational, and culturally enriched environment during the summer months for youth ages 5 through 14. During the summer of 2000, the camp expanded to host 110 children and was housed in St. James Preparatory School.

St. James Center for Family Life, a comprehensive free health-care clinic is located in the St. James Family Development Center. Headed by Nurse Luretha M. Stribling, the center is open weekdays and since its inception has served more than 2600 patients. Under the auspices of St. Barnabas Healthcare System, the center has received major funding from the Healthcare Foundation of New Jersey and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

The Brownfields Environmental Worker's Training Program is a partnership with the newly formed New Jersey/New York Environmental Worker Training Consortium. Housed in the Blake House the program provides training in the construction trades. The initial class has 30 men and women participants.

St. James Social Services Corporation acknowledges with gratitude the following major financial supporters and in-kind donors (2000 -2001): Victoria Foundation; First Union Foundation; United Way; Fleet Bank; Summit Bank; Black United Fund; Bonner Foundation; Rutgers University; Kids Corporation; Shoprite and the Regional Business Partnership.

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God - what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Romans 12:2 NRSV

To enable young people to meet the challenges of today and in the future, Saint James Preparatory School takes great pride in the quality of education its students are receiving. Located in the urban community of Newark, NJ, the school is a private preparatory school positioned in the higher educational stratum of the local community and state colleges.

It is housed in a 10.5 million dollar high-tech facility ensuring its motto of "excellence". Saint James Preparatory School has the reputation of being one of America's most "wired" schools.

The curriculum for grade 7 through 12 is in accordance with New Jersey Core Curriculum Standards and allows technology to become infused throughout the content subject areas, and students have Internet and extensive research access.

Saint James Prep is in partnership with Rutgers University, New Jersey Institute of Technology and St. Benedict's Prep School, which offers additional education and physical education components for Prep School students to experience and enjoy.

The Prep School maintains a low student-faculty ratio and small class sizes. In addition, SJP is a member of the Association of Christian Schools International, which enables them to have fellowships with other Christian schools.

St. James Preparatory School: A Christian Academy of Excellence is faith-based, being grounded and committed to the biblical teachings of God's Word. Christian values are practiced and applied to daily living.

The Prep School is reaping a harvest of growth for the glory of God; today we have the largest student body in the history of our school.

Using a full range of communication as well as business technology, St. James Prep School students will continue to excel, meet and pursue every challenge in this 21st century, becoming its most talented leaders.

COMMISSION ON YOUTH MINISTRIES

The Commission on Youth Ministries praise God for another year spent ministering, empowering, educating and enhancing the lives of children, teens and young adults in the name of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Over the past year the Commission on Youth Ministries has worked prayerfully and diligently to design and enhance ministries that give youth an opportunity to establish a relationship with Jesus and have freedom, understanding and knowledge in serving a risen Christ.

At St. James, the youth are invited to celebrate and worship God in a way that is appealing to their generation and promotes healthy spiritual growth. The St. James Youth Church is especially designed to minister to the needs of young people ages 2 – 18. Not only does salvation of young people take place weekly, more than half of the youth members are tithers who bring tithes and offerings unto the Lord. A major highlight of the year was the celebration of the first anniversary of the Youth Church on October 1, 2000.

Other Highlights

May 5, 2000 - First annual Conflict Resolution Conference which allowed more than 100 teenagers to express themselves and find helpful solutions to gang violence and abusive relationships. Other topics of discussion included the Hip-Hop culture and parental relationships.

October 31, 2000 - St. James Youth Ministries hosted over 400 young people from the local area at our annual Community Safe Haven Party.

January 6, 2001 - More than 100 young people were consecrated for service in the Youth Church. They dedicated their lives to the service of the church as Junior Stewards and Trustees, Junior Stewardesses, Junior Ushers and Acolytes. The altar-ware, communion sets, paraments and other items of worship were also consecrated.

"And said to him, do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read, out of the mouths of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise for yourself?"

WOMEN'S MINISTRY

"God, the Lord, is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer and makes me tread upon the heights."

Habakkuk 3:19

"Leaping to Higher Ground"

The Women's Ministry ushered the year 2000 under the direction of the Executive Minister, the guidance of our First Lady, Mrs. Muriel W. Watley, and three General Chairpersons: Gwendolyn Garretson, Mary Murphy and Wonder Henderson, who served as the key leaders for the Women's Ministry Coordinating Committee and the Women's Retreat. The highlights of the year included "Midnight Madness," an all-night prayer praise and worship service and our annual Women's Retreat.

The women worked together under the theme "Leaping to Higher Ground." Our goal was to climb together heights in our relationship with God and each other. In order to foster a sense of sisterhood and truly reach our goal, we recognized that we needed to be free of the weights and shackles that kept us on low ground and hindered our leaping. Under the direction of the Holy Spirit, Sis. Cindy Carr and Sis. Demetra Edwards spearheaded an all-night prayer session. Based on Paul and Silas' prison release after praying and praising God at midnight, "Midnight Madness" was born. Over 100 people convened in the sanctuary from 9 PM until 6 AM where we prayed, prayers of intercession, worshiped the Lord in song with the Praise Team, were lead in Dance by the Dance Ministry and received the Word "Do You Want to Be Free?" by Rev. St. Clair.

On November 9-11, we held our 4th annual Women's Retreat. We gathered together for workshops on Witnessing, Grieving and Maintaining a Godly Spirit and Weapons for Spiritual Warfare. We were blessed to have Dr. Millicent Hunter Thompson and Dr. Ann Lightner-Fuller as our workshop facilitators and preachers and Sis. Imari Weathers' powerful dramatic presentation on "Shattered Silhouettes" as part of our retreat. Worship was blessed by the anointed participation of our Praise Team and Dance Ministry. "The presence of God was truly in our midst!" On November 12th, we journeyed back to St. James for our closing services in which Dr. Elaine Flake was our dynamic preacher.

Indeed we have leaped to higher ground and for this we are truly thankful!

MEN'S MINISTRY

The year 2000 not only marked the turn of a new century, but the growth of the men's fellowship at the St. James A.M.E. Church. We have witnessed the spiritual, numerical and financial growth of the men of St. James as they seek a spiritual walk with the Lord.

Under the Leadership of our Pastor, Rev. Dr. William D. Watley, between fifty and seventy-five men met every Saturday morning for a spiritual walk through the book of Revelation. Here the seeds for spiritual growth have been planted and cultivated as we prepare ourselves for the growth and the ministries which we believe God is preparing both this church and the surrounding communities.

The Christian Men's Network, under the leadership of Ike Thomas, provided the social, educational and political interaction for these men of faith. The Network is a collaboration of men from other churches in the community, such as New Hope, and Metropolitan Baptist Churches. In addition to worshipping together, the Christian Men's Network has been instrumental in bringing seminars and workshops on finance, taxes, healthcare, investments and law.

We look forward with expectation as the men of St. James A.M.E. Church prepare themselves for the work to which God is calling them.

DANCE MINISTRY

The year 2000 has been a year of growth and restoration for St. James Dance Ministry. Susan Green serves as the director of the Dance Ministry and under God's anointing and her leadership, St. James Dance Ministry has grown to more than 70 members. The dancers are organized in four troupes - Adult Women, The Armor Bearers for Christ, Instruments of Praise and Children. The founding troupe, the Adult Women, has grown spiritually and physically maturing in their gifts and who they are in Christ. The Armor Bearers for Christ is a group of men and boys, coordinated by Darrel Pope, who praise God as David did. The men serve as positive role models for the younger boys. The Instruments of Praise, coordinated by Deborah Terry, allows people with limited movement to praise God through dance in spite of their physical limitations. The Children's division, under the leadership of Jackie Sims, has grown from a group of children who just dance to gospel music, to a group of children who truly minister about God's goodness. We praise God for the addition of tap dance to the Dance Ministry. Paris Mann leads this new component.

This past March over 100 liturgical dancers from New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts attended our liturgical dance workshop, DANCING THROUGH YOUR CIRCUMSTANCE. We celebrate this growth and look forward to what God has in store for us!
